

OMAR III Makes Her First Call

The cruise ship OMAR III made her First Call to Singapore on Saturday, 29 October 2005. Formerly known as the Sun Viking, the ship is chartered from Hong Kong by Asia Cruise Line and started home porting from Singapore from the following day. A plaque presentation was held on board the vessel on October 29 to commemorate the inauguration of her New Service. Capt Vadym Shumakov, the Master, receive a plaque from Mr. Jay Pang, Vice President (Operations).

This cruise ship is not new to Singapore. Just about 10 years ago, on 17 December 1995, the Sun Viking was the first American cruise ship to homeport in Singapore under Royal Caribbean Cruise Line. However, in less than a year, she was sold to Star Cruises and then chartered to Hyundai and re-positioned to South Korea.
