

PRESS RELEASE

Azamara Quest returns to Singapore for second consecutive Asian season
Reinvigorated Azamara Club Cruises brand offers exceptional options for the upmarket Asian cruiser

Arrival of Azamara Quest in Singapore

SINGAPORE, December 22, 2009 – Upmarket cruise line Azamara Club Cruises is marking its presence in Asia again with the return of its ship Azamara Quest to Singapore today to kick-start her second consecutive Asian season. The ship arrived at the Singapore Cruise Centre early this morning following a 24-night voyage from Athens. She will be homeported in both Singapore and Hong Kong offering new itineraries and destinations through to April 2010.

Upmarket cruising experience on *Azamara Quest

Azamara Club Cruises combines a more intimate onboard experience while allowing access to the less-traveled ports of call experienced travelers want to visit. Azamara Club Cruises combines destination immersion, exceptional service, fine cuisine and wines from around the world, and wellness and vigor programs.

Azamara Quest, a 694-guest ship, offers concierge-style amenities, including fresh-cut flowers, fresh fruit, Elemis toiletries, use of Frette cotton robes, plasma TVs and plush European bedding. Also featured are world class spa treatments with the finest therapists and aestheticians. Aromastone therapy and body sculpting are just some of the many ways to be pampered onboard. For meals, guests will have a choice of one of two specialty restaurants: Mediterranean-influenced Aqualina and a stylish steak and seafood restaurant Prime C, the main dining room, or the casual dining venue. Most of all, with one staff member for every two guests, Azamara's personal service is unparalleled.

An opportunity to truly discover Asian destinations

While delving deep into the history and culture of remote destinations larger ships cannot reach, guests sailing with Azamara Club Cruises will also enjoy a more exclusive experience. These special trips into the ports of call are designed to let guests become part of the fabric of life in each destination, instead of merely being an observer. The brand has recently been redesigned to include a newly refined focus - its new tagline "You'll love where we take you" best describes the destination focus of Azamara Club Cruises, which allows guests to truly experience a community and its culture.

Azamara Quest will embark on a series of six 14- and 18-night Southeast and Northeast Asian voyages this Asian season. Guests will be allowed to further immerse themselves in Asia's mixture of history and modernity with at least one in-port overnight stay per voyage in destinations such as Hue (Danang), Ho Chi Minh City, Hanoi (Halong Bay), Beijing (Tianjin), Hong Kong and Singapore.

Details of the sailings are as follows:

- A special 18-night Christmas and New Year's voyage from Singapore to Hong Kong from December 22, 2009, to January 9, 2010, with overnights in Ho Chi Minh City, Hue (Danang), Hanoi (Halong Bay), Hong Kong and Singapore, and visits to Bangkok (Klong Toey) and Canton (Guangzhou).
- Two 14-night Southeast Asia sailings from Singapore to Hong Kong on January 23 and February 20, 2010, featuring overnights in Bangkok, Ho Chi Minh City, Hanoi, Hong Kong and Singapore, as well as a visit to Hue.
- Two 14-night Southeast Asia sailings from Hong Kong to Singapore on January 9 and February 6, 2010, featuring overnights in Ho Chi Minh City, Hong Kong and Singapore and visits to Hue (Danang), Sihanoukville and Bangkok (Klong Toey).
- One 14-night Northeast Asia sailing from Hong Kong to Shanghai on March 6, 2010, featuring overnights in Beijing (Tianjin), Hong Kong and Singapore, as well as visits to Taipei (Keelung), Nagasaki, Seoul (Incheon) and Dalian.
